MONTREAL, QC

Now is the time to register for the next meeting of the Canadian Hardwood Bureau (CHB) which will take place on April 8-9, 2025 at the Double Tree by Hilton Montreal, 1255 Jeanne Mance St., Montreal, QC. Please book your hotel rooms today!

The Canadian Hardwood Bureau traditionally attracts over 100 dedicated hardwood industry professionals to our meeting each year. Our format allows you to maximize your time and we keep your costs down – by providing a convenient daily registration fee. Our members receive access to both days of our event for a registration fee of $210.

This event is being organized to provide those in the hardwood industry with the opportunity to get together, learn and network. Our keynote speaker is Adam Taylor, Professor and the Wood Products Extension Specialist at the University of Tennessee, in the southeastern region of hardwood country. Dr. Taylor was educated in wood science at the University of Toronto, the University of New Brunswick and Oregon State University. He promotes the wise and increased use of wood through teaching, applied research and outreach and was a presenter of CHB webinars to US architects and specifiers.
